950 LEVEL IS PRODUCING AT NORTH STAR

Better progress is being maintained at the property of the Tonopah North Star Tunnel & Development company, as is evidenced by the report of the last seven days. The snow is interfering some with shipping the ore that has been raised during the week, but the tramway will be in shape for travel in a very few days, and not only the accumulation of ore that has already been mined but regular production will materially assist in an increase in shipments from this time on.

The weekly report of mining operations at the property as given out by the management for the period ending January 7, follows:

The 700-foot level was advanced 15 feet during the week. No material change was noted. Stopping was continued on the 900 intermediate level and on the 950 level, where one railroad car of ore was extracted. This car of ore will be shipped as soon as the weather permits using the tramway. Prospecting was continued on two other levels.

FUNERAL TOMORROW

The remains of William Hender, former Tonopah mining man, who died in San Francisco last Wednesday night, will arrive in Tonopah tomorrow morning. The funeral arrangements have been completed and will be held at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon and will be in charge of Tonopah Lodge 974, Loyal Order of Moose. The Rev. G. G. Holm, pastor of the Episcopal church, will conduct the services at the house, on Jackson street, north of Oddie, and the services at the grave will be conducted by the lodge, of which the deceased was a member.

Mr. Hender is survived by his wife and one son, Stuart, a sophomore at the Tonopah high school.

PRESBYTERIAN CHOIR

The Presbyterian choir will practice tonight at the church at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. Cunningham has moved his office from the State Bank building to 128 Summit street, opposite the Catholic church.

AMUSEMENTS

VIOLA DANA AND BEN TURPIN AT THE BUTLER

As a female detective who engages in the novel occupation of rescuing unwary males from designing and unscrupulous women, Viola Dana again scores in "The Match Breaker," which will be shown at the Butler today. This is one of Viola Dana's best pictures, it giving her every opportunity to exercise to the full that vivacious and charming organization for which she is noted.

The story told is away from the beaten path of the usual movie entertainment and is staged in a way to keep the audience in suspense until the last scene. In the role of James Morgan, Ben Turpin plays the part of a girl who, successful in winning other girls' affections, starts in to make that her prowess in seducing.

Her first case involves her in unending the mixup of a father and son in unscrupulous schemes of the designing females and some extremely funny situations are created.

The other picture on today's bill is "The Bachelor," the comedy special in his latest comedy special, "The Bachelor."

It never rains but it pours!

IT WAS "company night" BUT WHEN I got home, I FOUND the Browns. HAD A sick baby. AND COULDN'T come. SO I chortled "Oh, joy. WON'T SUE and I have. SWELL EATS for two!" BUT NO, Sue said. "YOU DON'T suppose. I'D WASTE all this food. JUST ON you!" AND SO I said. "LET'S PHONE the Smiths." BUT THEY had headaches. THEN WE tried the Joneses. AND THEY fell for it. AND WHEN grub for four. WAS JUST about ready. THE PHONE bell tinkled. AND THE Brown baby was better. AND A minute later. THE SMITHS changed their mind. AND THE Mises fainted. "OH, WELL," I said. "THE MORE the merrier. WHAT'S THE difference? IF THERE isn't enough food. I'LL FEED the males. ON THE cigarettes that satisfy. AND YOU women can talk. AND BETWEEN the two. WE'LL ALL be Satisfied."

WONDERFUL company. Chesterfields—any time, anywhere. Just seem to "hit the spot." Good tobaccos, good blending, (by a private formula that can't be copied), good-looking package with an air-tight wrapper. On every count, an all-around downright good smoke. "Satisfy"? All over the place.
